Exercise autonomy and initiative in carrying out set project briefs and self-directed programme of study.

Deal with ethical and professional issues.

9. Indicative Content:

The component HAUS 3-A will treat the History of Architecture from the mid 20th century to the present. It will focus on late modernism and the different currents that succeeded modernism as well as their theoretical underpinnings. These may include Brutalism, utopian visions of the 1960s, post-modern architecture, "Critical Regionalism", deconstructivist architecture, informal architecture, and more recent currents. Discussions and debates presented in the course may also look at the idea of architecture as the expression of the zeitgeist as well as the connection of architecture to issues such as globalization, technology, the environment, or cultural politics

The component HAUS 3-B will focus on the City from the mid 20th century to the present. It will treat topics such as housing policy and process, housing types, homelessness, and mass housing developments in the UK.

10. Description of Summative Assessment:

Work assessed through written examination/essay, with a summative point at the end of the course.

Continuing students failing this course at the summative point will be withdrawn from the exchange out route and will rejoin the main cohort and HAUS 3 course. In that instance the summative grade will be treated as a formative grade.

External (Exchange In and Study Abroad) students failing the course at the summative point will have retrieval by submitting their work for the June Examination Diet.

10.1 Please describe the Summative Assessment arrangements:

Learning level outcomes stated for the course must be achieved, and ability to fulfil these is graded against the marking scheme (see Academic Regulations).
