OPEN STUDIO: OPEN TO ALL

Whether you are looking for a day, weekend or evening course, are looking to develop your portfolio to apply for art school or are minded to learn a new craft or skill, Open Studio at The Glasgow School of Art has something to offer you.

Join our creative community - choose from a wide range of design, fine art and architecture courses for beginners and advanced students alike, including drawing and painting, sculpture, photography, textile or jewellery design and stained glass making.

There are Saturday Studios for young creatives or new adult courses available on specialist crafts such as wood turning or stone carving. Held within the studios of our world-renowned art school our specialist courses are taught by a range of art, design and architecture professionals.
