The theme is "interior environment" in order to portray the view cut onto my balcony. Which is also a familiar viewpoint to me. The outside shows various exterior views. The inside shows more interior views. I am more emphasizing the exterior part by using irregular shapes and marks. The interior part will be emphasized using bold, geometric shapes.